

Town of Pittsfield Declaration of Inclusion

The Town of Pittsfield condemns racism and welcomes all persons, regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, gender identity or expression, age, or disability, and will protect these classes to the fullest extent of the law.

As a town, we formally condemn discrimination in all of its forms and commit to fair and equal treatment of everyone in our community.

The Town of Pittsfield has and will continue to be a place where individuals can live freely and express their opinions.

By the Pittsfield Select Board on April 15, 2021

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Bill Murphy", is written over a set of four horizontal lines. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Bill" being more prominent than the last name "Murphy".